

SENATE RECOGNIZED BY AN APPOINTMENT TO DISARM CONCLAVE

President Harding Recognizes the Senate's Claim to Share in Responsibility for Nation's Foreign Affairs by Naming Senator Lodge a Member of American Delegation

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The senate claim to a share of responsibility for the foreign affairs of the nation was recognized by President Harding today by the designation of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the foreign relations committee, as a member of the American delegation to the disarmament conference.

Formal announcement of the appointment was made from the white house where it was indicated that the president felt he had formed the nucleus of a balanced delegation by choosing as first members Senator Lodge and Secretary Hughes whose selection to head the American representatives was known several days ago. Other members probably will not be chosen until it is determined definitely how many places each nation is to have in the conference.

ATTORNEY ASKS VENUE CHANGE FOR GOV. SMALL

Move Ends Talk of Habeas Corpus Proceedings

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 16.—George B. Gillespie, counsel for Governor Small, and State's Attorney Mortimer exchanged statements tonight on the question of a change of venue in the case in which the governor is charged with embezzlement of public funds while state treasurer.

At the same time the governor's counsel filed in the circuit court formal application for a change of venue from the court of Judge E. S. Smith and from Sangamon county.

Filing of the application for a change of venue by Governor Small's attorneys and Mr. Gillespie's letter on the same question State's Attorney Mortimer indicated that the idea of instituting habeas corpus proceedings has been abandoned by the governor's counsel.

"This puts an end to the habeas corpus talk," Sangamon county officials said.

Means Separate Trials
It further indicated that the efforts to secure separate trials for Governor Small, Lieutenant Governor Sterling and Vernon Curtis will follow.

Declining of another county in which to try Governor Small and determination of the question of separate trials for the three defendants in the alleged state treasury scandal it was believed tonight are the remaining legal questions to be decided before the cases go to trial.

Mr. Gillespie late today asked State's Attorney Mortimer to be more specific in his recent offer to grant a change of venue without opposition and to name the judge before whom he wished the arguments to be presented.

Change Not Opposed

Declaring that he was sorry he had not made himself clear to the governor's counsel in his first letter, Mr. Mortimer reiterated his former statement agreeing not to oppose any attempt to take the case out of Sangamon county, adding that he did not care to avail himself of an opportunity to name the judge before whom the arguments for a change of venue should be held.

"I would rather that the presiding judge, Honorable E. S. Smith, call in either Honorable Frank W. Burton or Honorable Norman L. Jones, as he may see fit," Mr. Mortimer said. "Either of these judges would be entirely satisfactory to me."

Judges Burton and Jones are Judge Smith's associates on the Sangamon circuit bench.

Mortimer's Statement

Mr. Mortimer's statement in part follows:
"The reason that I inserted the language 'with consent of the court' (in letter of August 10) was that I did not want to seem to be in the attitude of usurping the right and function of the court to push the matter."

"In order to make my meaning as clear as possible I state to you here now, that I am ready and willing, when the matter is properly before the court to recommend to the court that your petition for a change of venue from the county be granted, not upon the basis that your client could not receive a fair and impartial trial in this county but rather upon the basis that you have made the petition an application and, that in view of the importance of the matters involved

SINN FEIN ARE DEMANDING FULL IRISH FREEDOM

Would Follow Ideals of American Declaration

(By The Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Aug. 16.—Complete independence for Ireland still remains the demand of the leaders of the Sinn Fein. At the opening of the Irish Republican parliament today Eamon DeValera, the Republican leader, in an address to the members, declared that for Ireland he and his colleagues stood for the ideals embodied in the American Declaration of Independence.

He reiterated Ireland's claim to separation from the British Empire and asserted that the cabinet of the Republican parliament was the sole government the Irish people recognized.

Avoid Bloodshed
Referring to the peace negotiations with David Lloyd George, Mr. DeValera said there were people who desired to negotiate in order to save their faces. The Sinn Fein, however, would negotiate only to save bloodshed and for right and principle. He declared that the cabinet in refusing the proffer of a dominion form of government by Mr. Lloyd George had taken this step because it considered his proposals unjust.

Mr. DeValera's address in which he promised that at the session tomorrow he would outline the negotiations he had carried on with Mr. Lloyd George was listened to attentively by the 130 members of the Dail Eiseann. The parliament tomorrow might consider the situation behind closed doors, DeValera said.

Members Take Oath
Notwithstanding the attitude of the members of the Dail Eiseann in taking an oath of allegiance to the Irish Republic, an oath which in former days would have been termed high treason, and DeValera's reiterated demand for the freedom of Ireland, British civil officers in Dublin, many of whom assert that they have channels of communication with the inner workings of the Sinn Fein are still hopeful of a settlement of the Irish problem. These officials tonight based their hopes on one section of DeValera's speech in which he said:

"In the general election which in effect was a plebiscite the question was put to the Irish people what form of government they wanted. The answer was unmistakable. I do not say their answer was for a form of government so much because we are no Republican doctrinaires, but it was for Irish freedom and Irish independence and it was obvious to everybody who considered the question that Irish independence could not be realized at the present time in any other way so suitable as thru a Republic."

Want World Recognition
"Hence it was that an Irish Republic as such was sanctioned by the representatives of the people and that you, the representatives of the people, came here and in public session declared the independence of the nation and solemnly declared your determination that you would rather give your lives and everything you had in an endeavor to make that expression of the people effective so that you would have not merely in your own hearts recognition of it but that you might secure recognition of it from every nation thruout the earth."

This is taken by officials here as affording an opportunity for Mr. DeValera to accept a settlement of the controversy which does not involve a republic. Further on in his speech, Mr. DeValera quoted a statesman who had advocated the principle of self-determination and this to the official mind in Dublin points to a reconciliation with the Sinn Fein cabinet to the Dail Eiseann to submit to the imperial government's offer to the vote of the people of Ireland.

NEGRO RUNS AMUCK
FIVE REPORTED DEAD

(By The Associated Press)

AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 16.—Five persons are dead as a result of disorders which began when a negro ran amuck this afternoon thru the center of the business section. Seven are known to have been wounded, two of them probably fatally.

Patrolman W. W. Moore, an unidentified white man and a negro were killed in a shooting affray following the initial outbreak of the apparently crazed man. Crowds of armed citizens immediately gathered at the scene of the shooting but were dispersed after some difficulty by the police, who were assisted in their task by a sudden rainstorm. With the cessation of the rain, however, other crowds swiftly collected and armed bands began to patrol the streets leading to the fear on the part of the city authorities of racial clashes.

MANUFACTURERS AND PAPER MAKERS ARE AGREED ON WAGES

International Paper Company Not Party to Agreement

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Wage reductions ranging from 10 per cent for skilled men to 25 per cent for common labor today were agreed upon by the board of arbitration, in the controversy between paper manufacturers and employees. The award which fixed 40 cents an hour rate for outside common labor, affects about 12,000 workers and will become effective August 22. The agreement provides for a return to the 1919 schedule and the average reduction is given at 15 per cent.

The agreement will continue in effect until May 1, 1922, but is subject to reopening by either party after December 1.

The trouble between the paper makers and the manufacturers began last April when the organized workers rejected the proposals for a new agreement providing for a 30 per cent wage reduction, a nine hour day instead of eight hours and elimination of overtime. The unions called strikes in paper mills effective May 1 and by May 15 virtually all paper production in the United States and Canada was reported at a standstill. The shutdown was of sort duration as some of the mills signed with the union and others began to operate with non-union workers.

During July the unions and the eleven companies that participated in today's award agreed to arbitration and the men returned to work.

The man said that Smith lived on a farm a few miles from Jacksonville but later changed this story and said the check had been given him by a white man after they played a game of cards.

FORD'S OFFER FOR MUSCLE SHOALS IS MET BY SOUTHERNER

Operate Plant on 50-50
Basis Instead of Yearly Payment

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Notice that he would meet Henry Ford's offer for the purchase and operation of all establishments in connection with Muscle Shoals, Ala., nitrate plants and dams was received today by Secretary Weeks in a telegram from a Birmingham resident whose name the secretary declined to make public. The message said details of the new offer would be sent by mail and these were awaited by the secretary. It added that the bidder did not desire any publicity given him in connection with the offer. Secretary Weeks said he and Secretary Hoover conferred for several hours over the Ford proposal without reaching a final decision, but that experts had been employed to study the details and technical phases of the bid.

The Birmingham message said the plant and dam would be operated on a 50-50 profit basis instead of the yearly payment stipulated by Mr. Ford.

A guarantee to pay for all water power used by the steel and surplus power "to other interests at reasonable price," was contained in the notice.

The bidder added that undivided profits accruing from operations of the project would net the government several millions annually and would meet the approval of all farming interests.

SUICIDES IN COOK COUNTY INCREASING

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The number of suicides in Cook county during the first seven months of 1921 was approximately 34 per cent greater than the number during the corresponding months of 1920 according to figures given out at the coroner's office today. The total number of suicides this year to July 31 was 245, while last year to that date it was 243.

Three times as many men as women take their own lives the coroner's statistics show. More married persons committed suicide than single persons, the report showed.

Temporary insanity leads the list of motives.

FARMERS CLAIM WILL BURN CORN AS THEIR FUEL

Allege High Freight Rates Prevents Any Possible Shipping

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Iowa farmers are attempting to mature the largest corn crop in the history of the state without a market and Minnesota farmers are preparing to burn their corn this winter instead of buying coal, farmers today told the interstate commerce commission in its investigation of freight rates on grain and hay. Railroads by maintaining abnormally high freight rates will lose the traffic on the coal which the farmers would use if they could sell their corn as well as that of the unsold grain. T. E. Cassman, a Minnesota farmer, told the commission. Lower freight rates on grain and hay, he said in reply to questions by members of the commission would increase the volume of traffic, not only in those commodities, but the increase would be reflected in the added purchases by farmers of machinery, household goods, lumber and other necessities.

Basic Industry First.

E. H. Cunningham, secretary of the American Farm Bureau Federation of Iowa, and a practical farmer said that while the railroads probably were suffering as a result of the present readjustment, he believed the situation as regards a basic industry like agriculture should be given precedence in consideration over the concerns which he described as the commercial "industry."

Dr. E. G. Murre of the Iowa state agriculture college was put on the stand by the grain men to establish that cost of production, transporting and marketing grain were more than the prices received by the farmer. All witnesses agreed that all market prices of grain included transportation costs and that the price paid the farmer was in every case the market price less the cost of handling freight.

Effect of Reduction.

Commissioner Lewis asked whether a reduction of freight rates would have a tendency to increase shipments to points of consumption, thereby increasing competition and reducing prices. He was told that this probably would be true in the case of hay but that the reduction in price would not equal the increase amount paid the farmer as the result of reduced rates.

Reduced rates on grain the witness said would not reduce the market price of grain.

SPRINGFIELD VOTES
BONDS TO DEVELOP
CITY LIGHT PLANT

Defeats Proposition to Pay Board's Award for Private Property

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 16.—Springfield voters today supported the city administration's plan to continue development of the municipal plant and defeated a proposition to pay an arbitration board's award of $2,108,122 for the plant of the Springfield Gas & Electric company.

With a threatened shutdown of the company's plant averted by the offer of a new franchise, tension over the election was relieved and a lighter vote than was indicated a few days ago was registered at the polls today.

In some quarters it was believed the offer of a new franchise nullified part of today's election. Others predicted only temporary relief in the situation as the city council has not yet passed the franchise ordinance.

A proposition to grant a thirty year franchise to a holding company until the city takes over the company's property was defeated today.

DEMOCRATS PLAN A BROADSIDE ASSAULT ON NEW TAX BILL

To Brand it as Rich Man's Bill—Do Not Dispute Figures But Attack Means by Which Reductions Are Arrived at—Debate Begins Wednesday With Vote Saturday

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The nation's tax bill will be cut $193,640,000 this fiscal year; $377,790,000 in the calendar year 1922 and $790,330,000 in 1923, Chairman Fordney, of the ways and means committee asserted today in the majority report explaining the tax revision bill framed by Republican committeemen.

Without disputing the figures, Democrats of the house prepared in caucus for a broadside assault on the Republican measure planning to brand it as a rich man's bill. Their views were to be incorporated in a minority analysis attacking the means by which reductions were achieved.

Meantime the rules committee introduced a rule to put the bill thru the house at 3 p. m. Saturday. Debate will begin at 11 a. m. tomorrow, the measure having been formally reported today by the ways and means committee with the Democrats voting solidly against it.

Chairman Fordney insisted in the majority report that the policy of the bill was reducing rather than shifting tax burdens.

Applying to individual taxpayers the net difference of $790,330,000 between the losses and gains, Mr. Fordney said they represented a reduction of 7 per cent, "or a saving to the average family of $35 per year."

Since the repeal of the excess profits tax and the reduction of surtax rates on individual incomes do not become effective until 1923 Mr. Fordney said $406,250,000 of the contemplated loss of revenue would not be reflected in revenue collections prior to the calendar year 1923. Discussing elimination of these levies Mr. Fordney quoted two former Democratic secretaries of the treasury—Glass and Houston—as urging their repeal. Mr. Glass in 1919 and Mr. Houston in 1920.

Prevent Tax Evasion.

Emphasis was laid by the chairman on sections of the new bill designed to prevent tax evasion. He informed the house that under existing law the taxpayer might improperly reduce his surtaxes by changing his fiscal, thus splitting his annual income into two parts.

To prevent such an evasion, he added the bill provided that in the case of a return for a period of less than one year the net income shall be placed on an annual basis and the surtax properly computed thereon in accordance with the number of months in such period.

To prevent evasion of tax thru the medium of "wash sales" Mr. Fordney said a section had been put in the bill to limit deductions for losses by providing that no deduction should be allowed for losses sustained in the sale of securities where the taxpayer or about the time of such sale purchased identical securities.

Surtax Evasions.

The provision of the present law dealing with surtax evasion by corporation organization the report said was revised to meet the decision of the supreme court in the stock dividend case. There would be imposed on corporations of this character of a flat additional income tax of 25 per cent of the net income, but if the stockholders agreed they might be taxed upon their distributive shares in the net income of the corporation in the same manner as members of a partnership, such taxes to be in lieu of all income taxes upon the corporation.

Exemptions Limited
Mr. Fordney said some mortgage and investment companies had been obtaining exemptions allowed by law to building and loan associations by operating under the guise of such associations. To prevent such evasions of tax the chairman explained, the exemption had been limited in the new bill to "domestic building and loan associations operated exclusively for the purpose of making loans to members."

HUNDREDS ATTENDED
ELKS CHICKEN FRY

The Elks chicken fry held at the grounds of the Morgan county tuberculosis sanatorium Tuesday was largely attended. The downpour of rain a noon and in the early afternoon hours made postponement seem necessary, but a change in weather conditions made it possible to carry out the original plan.

There was a plentiful supply of chicken and fish, together with other good things, all served in buffet style. The several hundred Elks present declared it one of the most successful of the picnic events that the entertainment committee has arranged.

EX-KING PETER OF SERBIA DIED EARLY TUESDAY

Suffered Pleurisy Attack But Thought to be Improving

(By The Associated Press)

BELGRADE, Aug. 16.—King Peter of Serbia died today. King Peter, who for a long time had been ill, was reported early in June to be in a serious condition. He was then suffering from pleurisy. A short time afterwards he was said to be steadily improving in health and his physicians declared him out of danger.

Nothing was heard of the aged monarch until a few days ago when a despatch from Belgrade said he was seriously ill with congestion of the lungs. He sank into unconsciousness Friday, remaining in that condition until the following day. His condition became worse Sunday night and he gradually failed until the end.

Historical Sketch.

King Peter of Serbia, 76 years old, white-haired, deaf, ill from the infirmities of age and suffering from the wounds of three or more wars, relinquished the cares of state in 1919 when his second son, Crown Prince Alexander succeeded him and became ruler of the new state of Yugoslavia. He then declared:

"My beloved Serbia is now free and its future, I believe, will be a great one. My work is over. I desire only the continued affection and devotion of my dear people and finally, a grave on Serbian soil."

Despite his age, King Peter presented one of the most courageous figures of the war. On the day that Serbia rejected the Austrian demands, Peter renounced his temporary abdication of the throne and placed himself once more at the head of the country. He was even then almost sightless and hard of hearing and was under the constant care of a physician.

Remained With Armies.

When the fortunes of war turned against the Serbians he remained with his armies till practically the last units had been driven from the country. He then effected an escape thru Albania and went to Saloniki where he presided over the reorganization of his forces. Afterwards he went to Corfu where he established headquarters and took an active part in the direction of his nomadic government.

Forced from his capital, Belgrade, and thence from Nish by the advancing army of the Central Powers in 1915, his country laid waste by fire and shell. Peter lived to return to Serbia and engage actively in the reorganization and reconstruction of his domains. From the beginning of the conflict the aged King encouraged his troops and people despite the most depressing reverses and on several occasions personally led the Serbs into battle.

Son Takes Place.

An invalid, self-imposed exile in Greece, his son, Alexander, took his father's place as commander of the army. Alexander was later designated Prince Regent by the elder Karageorgievich and on November 26, 1918, the National Council of Yugoslavia at Agram, Croatia, confirmed the choice, thus relieving the venerable King of the rulership of Serbia, Montenegro, Slavonia, Bosnia, Herzegovina, Dalmatia and (Continued on Page 4.)

William D. Haywood, I. W. W. leader who is in Russia, is said to have inherited $100,000. Now we shall see just how sincere is Haywood in his communistic theories. Will he put this newly acquired wealth into the common treasury?

The state journal presents figures to show that the professors and instructors at the University of Illinois are paid higher salaries than are in force at other state universities. Under the new budget 113 persons on the teaching staff will receive $4,000 or more and various new positions have been created. Probably Governor Small knew that the institution would not suffer when he vetoed a portion of the huge appropriation asked for it.

In times like these Jacksonville is fortunate in not being an industrial city, for unemployment here does not reach anything like the percentage that obtains in other cities. The seriousness of conditions elsewhere can be quite well gauged from the statement that on one building job in progress here the superintendent of construction is daily approached by men willing to work for 50 cents an hour and begging to be employed for a few days at least.

Of all the plans proposed for soldiers' relief, that designated by the slogan, "Say It With Jobs" sounds best. There are of course some of the former soldiers who are feeling depressed because no cash of land bonus has been provided for them. But just at present the great rank and file will be quite well satisfied if a thankful government takes whatever steps are necessary to provide employment for those who are now walking the streets of the big cities looking for work.

An authority on market conditions in an eastern city—or at any rate a student of economics—declares that this country will never again see pre-war prices. This "authority" must have forgotten to look at the corn market, for corn yesterday was quoted at the lowest price which has prevailed in a like month since 1907.

A man who can explain present market conditions must have more wisdom than even belonged to Solomon.

Down in Carlville residents along one street where paving is proposed the property owners will do the work themselves. Under the public improvement act they have this right. This job will be watched as other cities will want to know whether it is possible for citizens to organize and do their own public improvement work for less expense than if the job had been turned over to a private contractor.

The decision to grant the Springfield utility company a 20 year franchise indicates that the city is not yet fully equipped to take care of its own utility problems. For weeks it has looked as if the capital city would do without the heat light and transportation that the company has been furnishing because of the expired franchise.

There has been continued strife between the city commission and the utility company and the new action with reference to franchise is a compromise. Certainly under all the conditions a compromise was the only reasonable course.

U. S. TOY TRADE

"The biggest retailers and mail order houses have gone back on us," declared a leading American toy manufacturer recently. "They are buying the cheap German and Japanese toys. Unless there is some good indication that American wholesalers, jobbers and retailers are willing to support the domestic market we may as well shut down our plants and go out of business." It is a somewhat popular move in small towns to encourage local and discourage mail order purchasing. "A mail order purchase is a slap at your home town," they sometimes say. One reading this statement regarding the purchase of German and Japanese toys by mail order houses, and refusing to support American-made toys, is inclined to sympathize with the small town attitude.

The American toy industry had an opportunity to develop greatly during the war years, and despite the handicaps necessarily imposed on industries of that sort, it increased its product from $14,000,000 in 1914 to $30,000,000 in 1920. In 1914 we imported over $7,000,000 worth of foreign toys, and in 1920 over $10,000,000 worth. Foreign competition, particularly from Germany and Japan is increasing rapidly. At the present rate it would not be surprising if they controlled a third of the American trade in a year or so. Naturally the mail order houses are after the cheapest toys they can secure. They generally take the importers' side of the tariff controversy, since they are ever in search of the cheapest buying market. But after an American industry has been put out of business, the buying public no longer receives the advantage of lower prices, but must pay tribute to foreign monopoly. The American toy makers ask 60 per cent protection and since their chief competition comes from Germany and Japan, they seem to have a good case.

MADE AUTO TRUCK TRIP TO GALESBURG

F. V. Correa recently made a trip to Galesburg with his truck hauling a horse for exhibition at the Knox county fair. Mr. Correa left Jacksonville at 6 a. m. Monday and arrived at the fair grounds at 12:30 noon, having traveled 133 miles. It was necessary to detour on account of several bridges that had been washed out by the heavy rain Saturday night. Returning Mr. Correa left the fair grounds at 2 p. m. and following a route that took him by way of Astoria and Virginia, arrived at home at 7:30. The speedometer showing 115 miles. Several stops had to be made on account of high water in the river bottom and Mr. Correa rightly thinks he made excellent time.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

THAT OLD HOUSE

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

This Spring, the one-story, frame house, which stood at the northwest corner of Court and West streets, was torn down, and there was a good deal of talk about its history. Several versions have appeared, from as many parties, in The Journal. One had Mrs. T. D. Kames living there, or teaching a school there; which was probably altogether a mistake, although Mrs. Kames may have done some private teaching in what was so long her home, at the northeast corner of State and Prairie streets.

Mr. Charles W. Fitzsimmons looked up the legal history of the property, and furnished this writer a copy of it, which the writer mislaid, and has just found. This apparently confirms what the writer thought as part of the early history of the house in question, namely that

The Kerrs were the early and prominent occupants of the house.

By the Kerrs is meant "James Kerr and Janet his wife," who were two of the good people who were charter members of the "First Presbyterian church of Morgan county," latterly, of Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr were admitted to "the First" by letter from the Reformed church of New York City; and he, if not both of them, was probably Scotch by birth. The "First church" was organized June 30, 1827, by the Rev. John Brich, well known to Presbyterians.

According to Mr. Fitzsimmons' quotation from the county records,

Three Lots were sold, January 14, 1828, by the state to Isaac Glisson, by deed of the County Commissioners, for $14.75.

Mr. Glisson transferred the property to George Hackett, Sept. 7, 1831.

Hackett turned it over to Darius Ingalls, Sept. 22, 1831; and Ingalls to Stephen Hart, August 25, 1832.

Mr. Hart transferred the property to Mr. John Kerr, according to Mr. Fitzsimmons' memorandum—probably meaning James Kerr, July 16, 1836.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Challiner are well and favorably known in the community and have many friends to unite in extending good wishes. They are to reside on a farm near Joy Prairie.

LOCAL COMPANY PREPARED FOR A LONG STAY

The local howitzer company has made its final preparation for the trip to the rifle range at the State Fair. The company will leave on the 8:20 Thursday morning and will stay in Springfield sixteen days.

Captain James and two of the company have returned from a Camp Lincoln conference of the commanding officers with the result that an additional supply of clothing has been received. This new supply has accomplished what heretofore has been unheard of, every member of the company now has a uniform which fits him.

An infantry company from Quincy will join the local company on the train and they will march together to the camp.

The members of howitzer company do not take any equipment with them. Everything is supplied at the camp. The handling of the howitzers will be a novelty to the Jacksonville members. The howitzers throw a one pound shell and the trench mortars which they will use throw a three inch shell which explodes within a thousand yards.

A recent order from Col. Frank L. Taylor has made it difficult for any guardsman to avoid this trip. He must present his request and reasons in writing and only serious illness or very important necessities will excuse a man.

MR. AYERS IMPROVES

The condition of Walter Ayers, who was injured in an automobile accident Sunday night, was very much improved Tuesday. The improvement was such that his son, Allan F. Ayers, returned to Akron, Ohio, where he is vice-president of the Ohio Savings & Trust Co. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eaton arrived from Brockton, Mass., to be with Mr. Ayers for a number of days.

CAR DAMAGED

An Overland car driven by Percy Becker came into collision with a car of tourists at the corner of East State and East streets yesterday. Mr. Becker's car was somewhat damaged but no one in either machine was injured. As Mr. Becker had the right of way and could not avoid the collision, when the tourists' car cut in ahead of him, the tourists paid for the damage resulting from the collision.

MURRAYVILLE CHURCH SERVED FRIED CHICKEN

Ladies of St. Bartholomew's Church Fed Large Crowd at Chicken Fry Tuesday Afternoon—Rain Interferes With Program.

Altho the weather was not all that could be desired, the annual chicken fry of the ladies of St. Bartholomew's church at Murrayville was a very successful event. There was a very large attendance and all who came were served without undue delay. It had been planned to have a ball game between the Murrayville and Chapin teams but the rain in the early afternoon caused a change in plans.

The Winchester high school band furnished music thruout the afternoon and evening hours and there were other features which added to the pleasure of the event. Supper was served beneath a large tent well lighted by electricity, the menu including fried chicken and all the good things which usually go with it. The arrangements for the supper were in charge of Rev. Edmund V. Flynn as general chairman, assisted by the following executive committee: Mrs. John Maloney, Mrs. Thomas McCarthy, Miss Mary Lawless, Mrs. Charles Dolin, Mrs. G. A. Hobbs, Mrs. William Ring and Mrs. Thomas Walsh.

The young people of the church had a large part in the preparations for the supper, and the same was true of the men of the congregation. In fact, all the church members co-operated in the undertaking and to their combined efforts is due its success. A goodly sum will be netted for the church treasury as a result of the supper.

BOLSHEVIK LEADERS LOOKING FOR HAVEN

Want to Have Place to Light When the Crash Comes in Russia—South America Seems to Be Favorite Place.

REVAL, Esthonia.—According to recently intercepted correspondence from Communist officials in Moscow to Communist agents abroad, advising them of the "inside situation" in Russia, South America is looked upon as a final haven of refuge by many of the less hopeful Bolshevik leaders in event Russia becomes too hot for them.

One of these letters, recently published in a Reval newspaper, the Poslednie Novosti, advises one of the official's friends, who now is apparently in Germany, to "convert your valuables into dollars as frequently as you can, or better still, into South American currency."

"The Octobrists," the letter adds, meaning by them those Communists who participated in the October, 1917, revolution, "are frequently sending their families abroad. Soon, it may be, I shall send my wife across to you, in which case try to put her up as best you can."

Referring to the political situation, this Communist wrote: "Ilitch (meaning Lenin), that being his middle name by which he is popularly known in Russia) is weakening. Trotsky alone remains as of old the unrecognized Napoleon, but he is 'revolutionizing' also."

In connection with the sending abroad of the families of the "Octobrists," this letter goes on:

EX-KING PETER OF SERBIA DIED EARL YUESDAY

Croat, which had united after their liberation from Austria.

Early in 1919 the aged king was removed to a quiet retreat near Athens, Greece, where he lived in a small six-room house overlooking the Bay of Phaleron. A person's secretary and his physician were his only companions. He had only one diversion; an occasional early morning ride around the Greek capital in the side car of a motorcycle driven by a Serbian soldier. To avoid the gaze of crowds he disguised himself with a mask and a pair of goggles. Later his health became so feeble that he passed most of his time in bed or a wheel chair.

His Last Interview.

When a correspondent for The Associated Press called to see him in May, 1919, the King consented to carry on a conversation only thru the person of the Serbian Minister to Greece. It was the last interview granted by the former ruler of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. To meet his long cherished wish that he might die on his native soil, the Serbian authorities in 1920 brought the invalid King back to his beloved Belgrade. He avoided society, however, and kept aloof from all court and public functions.

King Peter accomplished many big things for Serbia and became the idol of his people because of his strong anti-Austrian and pro-Russian attitude.

We Like to Give Service

Or, to put it differently, has it ever struck you that it isn't the ease of the job, but your liking for it that makes it attractive?

We're in the battery business because we like it.

If we can give you service that you didn't know we had, we are particularly pleased. We don't stop with merely filling, charging and testing your battery, and selling you a new one when you need it. We're here to do everything we can to see to it that your battery gives most miles of uninterrupted service per dollar, and more satisfaction all around.

We like to be bothered. Come anytime.

The writer constantly refers to the ruling councils of the Bolsheviks as "the Olympians," and remarks that "our Olympus is going the pace too fast."

"From January," he says, "the situation in the council of the party and in the Central Committee has come to a point to the last degree. The result of these conflicts was the expulsion of Comrades Krylenko, Bonch-Bruyevich, Dubov, Blumenthal and many others. This was the last gesture of the gay party gods. For a word said against Ilitch, Krenstinsky or Zinovlev, even not in public, ostracism is imminent."

HAS STOLEN BONDS AND IS INDICTED

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Mrs. Florence Shomo, arrested in connection with theft of $325,000 worth of securities from the Citizens State bank and Trust Company of Taintown, Iowa, was indicted by the Cook county grand jury today on the charge of receiving stolen property. The specific charge in the indictment was that of having in her possession eight government bonds known to have been stolen.

KENNEDY WILL BE TAKEN TO SPRINGFIELD

Dennis Kennedy, who is under arrest charged with the theft of a mail sack at Bluffs Monday night, may not deny the charge. The explanation made is that Kennedy was under the influence of liquor at the time and had very little realization of what he was doing. He is now being held at police headquarters for W. O. Baumgardner, inspector of the postoffice department. Mr. Baumgardner tonight expects to turn his prisoner over to a deputy U. S. marshal who is coming from Springfield.

Kennedy was arrested at Chapin by J. W. Wallace, deputy sheriff and Charles Scott. They took the man into custody after receiving a message from Bluffs that he was riding a passenger train due in Chapin about 8:50.

DECREASE IN COLD STORAGE HOLDINGS

Chicago.—Slight decreases in all cold storage holdings in Illinois, except of fish, eggs and butter, are shown in the monthly report of the Division of Foods and Dairies, Department of Agriculture.

At the end of June there were 16,800,000 pounds of creamery butter in storage, and at the end of July the amount had been increased to 22,800,000 pounds. Packing stock butter had decreased from 1,951,000 pounds to 1,080,000 pounds.

Less beef, mutton, pork and fish were in storage at the end of July than at that time last year, but there was more poultry. The last of July a year ago there were 1,295,876 pounds of chickens in storage, but the last of July this year there were 2,370,000 pounds.

INFORMATION SERVICE ON EARTHQUAKES

California Scientists Seek to Perfect Instrument to Record Earth Tremors and Predict Approaching Earthquakes.

Pasadena, Cal.—An information service on earthquakes, similar to the weather bureau's work in its field, is being considered by scientists, engineers and business men in California.

The undertaking aims at perfecting an instrument sensible enough to record the slightest tremors of the earth and so make possible the prediction of its surface.

The men in charge of the project are students of vibrations, who assisted in the development of submarine detectors and other similar instruments used during the war. They have the cooperation of local educational institutions, the United States Geological Survey and the United States Geological Survey. Responsibility has been assumed by the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

Direction of the work is in the hands of an advisory committee consisting of Dr. Arthur L. Day, director of the Carnegie Geophysical Laboratory, Washington, D. C., chairman; Dr. John A. Anderson of the Mt. Wilson Solar Observatory; Dr. Robert A. Millikan, physicist, of the California Institute of Technology; Dr. Harry Fielding Reid, professor of geology at Johns Hopkins University; Dr. Bailey Willis, professor of geology at Leland Stanford, Jr., University; Dr. Ralph Arnold, geologist and petroleum engineer, of Los Angeles, and Dr. Andrew C. Lawson, professor of geology at the University of California.

BOLSHEVIK PRESS OFFERS CRITICISM

Make Frank Statements About Conditions Produced by Communism.

REVAL, Esthonia.—(By The A. P.)—Those who have the idea that Bolshevik newspapers printed in Russia say only rosy things about the country could quickly be disillusioned by perusal of the papers themselves. During the past four months, the principal Moscow and Petrograd newspapers have been startlingly frank about some of the conditions that Communism has produced.

The Moscow Economic Life not long ago wrote the following description of conditions on one of the Communist "model" farms: "The farm presented a picture of complete desolation. For years there have been no repairs. Windows are broken, walls are falling in, and some of the buildings are in ruins. Workers live in terrible, dirty rooms, black from smoke. In one of the rooms there lives a calf, placed there by the foreman despite protests of women tenants."

"There are neither potatoes nor vegetables for the workers. In the summer no one has bothered to store them. People are starving, cattle are starving. In the farm there are 32 persons, of these six are officials."

The old program of the Bolshevik government called for an increase in the number of these "model" farms. The new program by which the peasants are given nine years tenure of their land, practically does away with them.

No less frank were more recent admissions in the Moscow newspapers about the economic state of Russian factories, some of which were shown to be producing less than five percent of what they produced before the war.

It is my honest desire that your petition should be granted."

Small's Attorney Speaks

In answering Mr. Gillespie the state's attorney said:

"I wholly agree with that part of your proposition that you will present the petition setting forth your grounds for a change supported by affidavits that I may file affidavits denying any fact or facts in the petition or supporting affidavits, as I may see fit; but with the understanding that such counter affidavits shall not be considered as resistance to the application for the change; that thereupon a stipulation be filed agreeing to a change of venue from the county if the court deems it and that we join in a recommendation that the prayer of the petition for a change of venue from the county be granted."

To Mutually Agree

"I agree entirely with the suggestion that we shall through negotiations, endeavor to mutually agree upon the county to which the case is to be sent for trial, and if such agreement can be reached to jointly recommend to the court that the case be sent to that county. That, on failure to so agree then each side shall make such suggestions to the court or judge as will enable him to finally determine where the case should be sent."

"I agree with the suggestion that the stipulations or agreements entered into about a change of venue shall have no effect upon the phase of the case other than that particular thing. I am most anxious Mr. Gillespie to accord to your client every consideration that I consistently can thruout these proceedings and you will find me in every matter arising in the course of this litigation, ready and willing to accord to you, your associates and client all that I consistently and reasonably can."

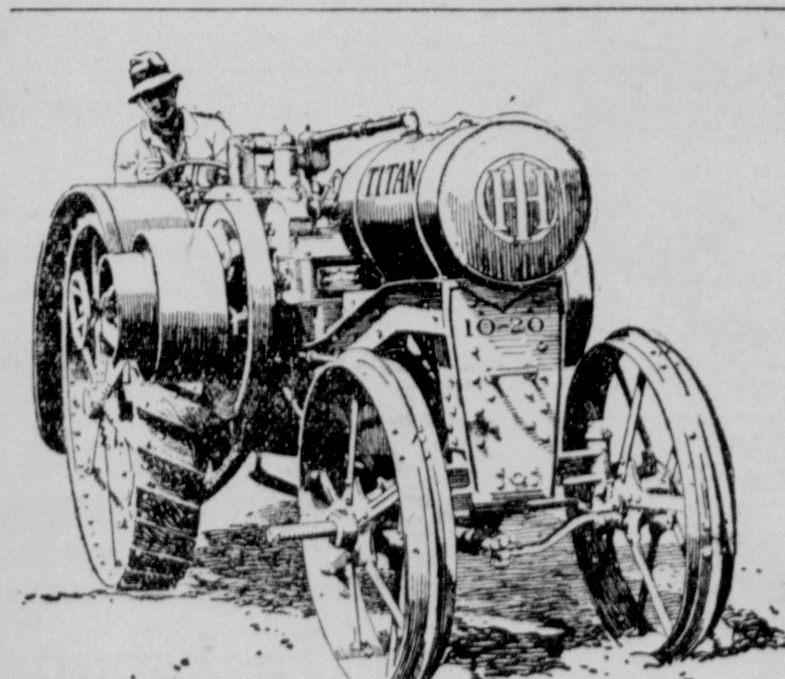

"I am ready to take up with you and your associates negotiations as to a county to which the matters are to be transferred at your convenience."

More Value for Less Dollars

At Lowest Price Ever Quoted

The Famous Titan 10-20 $900

All former price advances are wiped out by the big reductions made on this three-plow tractor. We believe this is the best buy on the tractor market, barring none.

This is the lowest price ever quoted on the Titan, considering equipment now included (formerly sold extra). March 1, 1921 the price was $1,200. Now it is $900. As this price disregards manufacturing costs, we do not know how long it will be maintained.

International 8-16 is also lower than ever before. Consider carefully before you purchase. You need full value for your dollars. The length of service and freedom from trouble means a big saving to purchasers of the Titan 10-20 or International 8-16.

All prices f. o. b. Chicago. We can arrange suitable terms. These prices certainly justify the immediate purchase of a tractor. Get yours in time for the horse-killing work of hot weather plowing and the fall and winter belt work.

AUTO INVESTIGATORS BRING IN FUNDS

Large Addition to License Money
Results from Work of Officials Named By Secretary Emmerson

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 16.—Reports of the work done by the automobile investigators during the month and a half since they were appointed under the new law passed by the last General Assembly, indicate nearly half a million dollars in license fees which has been escaping in the past will be brought into the state treasury thru this agency. In every community visited by the investigators up to this time, according to the Automobile department of the Secretary of State, Louis L. Emmerson's office, the number of applications for chauffeurs' licenses has increased 100 per cent and there has been a large increase also in the applications for duplicate plates where license plates have been lost and for additional license plates where the owner operates more than one car.

When the new law was passed giving Secretary of State Emmerson power to appoint investigators with authority to make arrests for the violation of automobile laws, it was estimated that collections from automobile and chauffeur licenses would be increased by this means to the extent of $250,000. Indications now are, it is claimed, that this figure will be greatly exceeded. The state good roads fund will benefit as a result for all money collected from this source goes directly into this fund.

Investigators are finding, it is said, that the law relative to chauffeurs' licenses has been very laxly observed in practically every community in the state. Under the law no boy under 18 years of age is permitted to drive a car or truck for hire, and every person who drives a car or truck for hire or compensation of any kind must have a chauffeur's license. This applies to the delivery boy, to the clerk in the store who occasionally drives the delivery truck, to the taxi driver, and to all truck drivers who operate for hire.

"Another provision of the automobile laws which is not fully observed," Walter W. Miller of the automobile department said today, "is the section relative to the use of dealers' licenses. These licenses are issued for the convenience of automobile dealers, and can legally be used only on cars offered for sale or for demonstration purposes. A great many dealers, investigators find, are using dealers' licenses on service cars and cars let out for hire. This is clearly a violation of the law. Cars used in this way have additional license plates.

"The investigators also are after drivers who have but one license plate on their cars. Some persons who own two cars have avoided buying two sets of plates by using one plate on each car. The law requires a license plate both on the front and on the rear of every car, and if one of the plates is lost, applications for a duplicate must be made at once to the Secretary of State."

VETERANS WILL GO TO CAMP DODGE

Ten Thousand Ex-Service Men
From Six States to Gather at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 16.—The final pilgrimage of nearly 10,000 mid-west veterans to Camp Dodge, site of their war training days, will start from across seven mid-western states this week.

Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Illinois and the Dakotas will send large delegations to Des Moines for this, the first reunion of the 88th Division to be held since the close of the war August 26-28 are the dates which have been set. Camp Dodge will be torn down in six months and this will be the final visit of the veterans to their early training ground.

A huge tent city on the state fair grounds here is being erected this week. The service men will be housed in this city free of charge during the period of the reunion.

All the former division commanders will attend the ceremonies, and officials have had assurances that General Pershing probably will accept an invitation to review the veterans on Saturday afternoon August 27th.

The city of Des Moines has planned a great number of social functions for the service men and the three days will be filled with the holiday spirit for the city. It will be a second Armistice Day in old Camp Dodge.

The sleeve, the waist line and the skirt length. These are the three "grace notes" of the fall fashions. Three models from Joseph show the fall tendencies. THE HIGHWAY THOUGHTS OF A MOTORIST

The following worth while observations are made by a Jacksonville woman who not long since motored from Jacksonville to a resort several hundred miles north of Chicago.

Editor Journal:

The placing of arrows along the roads leading to Jacksonville, which has been done by our merchants this summer, is certainly a move in the right direction. A recent motor trip thru parts of Illinois, Indiana and Michigan reveals the fact that the road markings in Illinois are not up to the standard of those in the other states named. A few suggestions have occurred to me which may not come amiss to those interested.

For some time in motoring about the country roads near Jacksonville, I have wondered why the farmers did not place their names on their mail boxes; not merely to satisfy the curiosity of the passer-by but as an aid to tourists. And now, after having guided a party thru unknown territory I wish, more than ever, that they would do so. In Michigan some of the banks furnish, free of charge to their patrons, placards giving the name of farmer, distance to nearest town and, of course, name of bank. These are of inestimable value to the way-side travelers.

Small towns, too, seem inclined to conceal their identity. Unless the highway happens to pass by the railroad station, which may or may not bear name of the town, it is very difficult to discover this name. At one time we drove thru two nameless towns before we found, at third, that we were following the wrong trail. To be sure, one can always ask, but this takes time and is not in every case productive of satisfactory results. For instance, inquiring at one place for the best road to the next town, three out of four of the people addressed gave different directions. The average citizen will wave his hand, vaguely, toward almost any point of the compass, and tell you to "just follow the main road"—which, likely as not, will have half a dozen well traveled diverging branches.

Cross road markings are frequently so surrounded and interspersed with commercial advertisements as to be almost impossible to discern from a moving car. If these blots on our landscape must be, let them at least stand at some distance from the road markings.

The West Michigan pike has been undergoing many repairs this summer, which means of necessity many detours and complaint has been made by automobilists of the impassability of most of these. It would seem that in any place where it is necessary to close a road for a time, some reasonably decent detour should first be provided.

As for the road hog, with no respect for the rules of the road, and the tourist who leaves behind a trail of papers, boxes and tin cans, too much cannot be said. The Tin Can association, whose members are pledged to observe courtesy on the road and to leave each camping place cleaner than they find it, is doing much to eliminate these nuisances.

The so-called "logs," published by the Goodrich Tire company a year or two ago, were of great help those not possessed of Blue Books. At Winamac, Indiana, we found at a garage a neat little card giving explicit directions for following the road to the next town. Traffic markings are good, but sometimes misleading at cross-roads or thru too great similarity.

Of all the numerous signs and slogans noticed along the way, the one of greatest interest to me read: "Any town that is good enough to live in is good enough to boost." While not, perhaps, strictly new, this slogan is certainly worth while.

Yours sincerely,
Motorist.

Deaths

Taylor

Death came at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning to Mrs. Anna M. Taylor, a long time resident of this city, at Passavant hospital, where the deceased had been a patient for the past two weeks. She had been in poor health for the past several weeks and her death was not unexpected.

The deceased was seventy-four years and nine months old at the time of her death. She was born in Sangamon county, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cook. At an early age the family moved to this city where the decedent has since resided. Her marriage to Andrew J. Taylor occurred in 1869. Mr. Taylor passing away June 13, 1920.

The surviving children are Charles W. Taylor of Quincy and Mrs. Arthur Cobb of 812 South East street, this city. There are also four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mrs. Taylor was for many years a member of Central Christian church and her life was one in accord with the teachings of that denomination. She was also associated with the Woman's Relief corps for many years. The remains were removed to the Reynolds mortuary and funeral services will be held there at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, in charge of Rev. M. L. Pontius. Interment will be in Jacksonville cemetery. Friends wishing to view the remains may do so by calling at the Reynolds chapel after 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

PET ANIMALS MADE ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM

New Chautauqua Entertainment Feature Delighted Big Audience of Children and Grown-ups—Mr. Gage Presenting Series of Strong Lectures.

Rain interfered to some extent with the attendance at the chautauqua Tuesday afternoon but that was not the case in the evening. The big tent then did not hold the audience and many stood on the outside listening to the concert program and looking at Pamahaska's animal show.

One man in the audience told those near him that he had seen this animal show ten years ago and for that reason had traveled twenty-five miles to bring his six year old son. The father and the lad both gave evidence of their appreciation of the entertainment and this was true of the hundreds and hundreds in the audience. Very clever indeed was the exhibition. Rabbits, dogs, ponies, to say nothing of still other animals and numerous birds made their contribution. Boys and girls were permitted to have seats of vantage near the platform. In fact, many of them were on the platform and so had this close up view of the animals. They are rightly termed "Pamahaska's Pets," and his control over his animals is nothing short of marvelous. The management no doubt booked this attraction especially for the children, but it was just as popular with the grown-ups.

The Zedeler Symphonic Quintet gave a varied program of vocal and instrumental music both afternoon and evening and pleased the audiences.

A Strong Lecture Series
At the morning hour Platform Manager Gage gave another in his series of lectures, as he did in the afternoon. The first of the series was "The Greatest Temple," the second, "The Greatest Battle," and the third, "The Greatest Art." The morning Mr. Gage will have as his theme "The Greatest Game." The lectures have their practical applications to living. The greatest battle, according to Mr. Gage, is that with self, and the greatest art is that of living. So the greatest game is the chance that people have of losing opportunities.

Mr. Gage is proving himself a most capable platform manager and his lectures are of great worth. Last night he again led the big audience in a brief but inspiring program of mass singing. Today the Zedeler quintet will appear both afternoon and evening. This afternoon's program will include a lecture by M. H. Lichtner.

AN OLD TIMER
A crowd of nearly 50 last night inspected an old Oldsmobile which is parked in front of the J. W. Skinner auto store on South Main street. The car measures 18 feet in length and just about half of that space was required for the enormous motor of 105 horsepower.

The motor with the exhaust open made a noise like a battery of six inch guns. The wheels of the car were unusual too, being forty-two inches in height. The car was driven by P. J. Fleming, who is traveling over the country.

At the meeting it was also decided to meet next Friday night for a clean-up meeting for the purpose of getting their quarters ready for the new furniture. The furniture will be in readiness for the next regular meeting. The Legion also wishes to take this opportunity to extend its heartiest thanks to the citizens who so generously helped during the round-up in providing tanks, tarpaulins, and other necessities, and also to the local Boy Scouts for the efficient and excellent services rendered by them.

Gave Farewell Party

Mrs. Van Hynning gave a farewell party at her home last evening for her nieces Misses Edna and Hazel Bernice Nicholson. There were about fifteen young ladies present at the party for the young ladies, who have been visiting Mrs. VanHynning for several days.

The evening was spent playing games and dancing. One of the interesting social features of the evening was the peanut hunt. In this contest Miss Catherine Madison won first prize and Miss Marian Smith the consolation prize. During the pleasant evening refreshments were served.

INDIANS WILL HOLD MODERN CONVOCATION

Religious Meeting Quite Different from Those of Tribal Days to Be Held in South Dakota.

OKREEK, S. D. — Trailing across the prairie in picturesque procession, five thousand Christianized Indians, bearing banners and crosses of the Episcopal church, will cross the plains the latter part of this week in all sorts of conveyances to build a city of teepees on the banks of Oak Creek near here. For four days beginning Aug. 19, the Indians will hold a modern religious convocation, a meeting quite different from the religious rites of tribal days.

This modern Indian convocation will be held in an open air tabernacle under the leadership of Bishop L. Burleson, of the Protestant Episcopal church.

The convocation in the city of teepees is designed to bring together the Sioux and other tribesmen from the Rosebud and surrounding Indian agencies in the district presided over by Bishop Burleson. The convocation will also serve to commemorate the centenary of Missionary Society of the Episcopal church, illustrating the advance made by the Indian under the influence of the missionary movement.

In connection with the religious services, a business meeting will be held at which the Indians will be addressed by Charles H. Burke, Federal Commissioner on Indian Affairs.

The Woman's Relief Corps will meet at Reynolds Mortuary Thursday morning to attend the funeral services of Sister Anna M. Taylor.

New Home Sanitarium

Incorporated

A Private Surgical Hospital

Thru its Public Health Department Says:—

Our attention has been called to the absence of our Bulletins of Health the past three weeks, but glance at the busy corner, 323 W. Morgan, and you can see why this seeming neglect.

In reality it is not neglect because all spare moments have been used to provide better and more accommodations for those who must join the "Crusade" for better health and longer life by having diseased parts and foreign bodies removed by the knife.

In fact we are endeavoring to make The New Home Sanitarium not only the safest place, but the only logical place, because it is a real Surgical Hospital, devoted to surgical work only, but the most home-like place to be in when having to go thru the ordeal of a surgical operation.

Don't be contented until you see for yourself what a home-like place this really is.

HE HAS THROWN CRUTCHES AWAY

Shelton Suffered Night and Day With Rheumatism Before Taking Tanlac.

"Yes, sir, rheumatism got me down, but since taking Tanlac I've thrown away my crutches and am now seventy years old," said Henry H. Shelton, Woodson, Ill.

"It's wonderful how quick I began to improve after I got the right medicine, and that, too, after I'd suffered so much and so long. For ten years I had spasms of pains nearly all the time from rheumatism, and finally got so I couldn't get about without crutches.

"No one who hasn't had inflammatory rheumatism can understand how I suffered day and night. I tried lots of medicines without relief and just went from bad to worse. I began to think I'd never be able to walk again without crutches nor help myself any more.

"Well, I read a testimonial of Tanlac that said my case exactly so I bought a bottle and was never more surprised in my life than I was with the way it went for that rheumatism. In almost no time the swelling was gone and also the misery I'd suffered so long.

"Every day I walk four to five miles and never even have a twitch of the muscles. I sleep like I did when I was a boy, and I never had such an appetite in my life, and things never before tasted so good to me. I feel it's my duty to let everybody know what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

WOMEN VOTERS PLAN ANTI-WAR CAMPAIGN

League of Women Voters of Illinois Seek to Discourage "Preparations for Next War" and Promote Reduction of Armaments.

Chicago. — Efforts of the League of Women Voters of Illinois this fall will be expended chiefly in discouraging "preparations for the next war," and in promoting "First of All—Reduction of Armaments." Announcement of this educational campaign which it is planned, will reach chautauqua audiences, church organizations and clubs in all sections of the state, has been made by Mrs. James W. Morrison of Chicago, who has been appointed chairman of the middle-west district of the league's campaign committee on Reduction of Armaments.

Beside appealing directly to audiences, the league will conduct the campaign with educational literature. Pamphlets to be mailed out, will ask this question:—"Do the women of Illinois feel that we should do without more colleges and without properly paid teachers to prepare adequately for the next war?"

According to the figures the league publishes, "Your government spends your money:—68 per cent for administration of government, public welfare and public works." The league quotes the United States Bureau of Standards. "In 1920 only 1 per cent of our total appropriations of $5,686,995,706 was used for agriculture and development of natural resources, education, public health and labor.

"For a single day the direct cost of the war to the United States would build in each of our 48 states, two hospitals costing $500,000 each; two $1,000,000 high schools in each state; 300 recreation centers and gymnasiums and swimming pools costing $300,000 each and there being $300,000 each and there would still be left $6,000,000 to promote industrial education.

"The cost for a single hour of war would build ten high schools costing $1,000,000 each. The amount of money necessary to build two of the proposed aircraft carriers, estimated at $26,000,000 each, would provide an increase of $8,000,000 per year for five years in the salaries of 13,000 school teachers.

"Do we realize that the same amount of money required to build one warship would endow a university like the University of Chicago and that at present our government has begun the building of sixteen such ships?"

First addresses in the league's campaign have already been made by Mrs. Morrison herself, at a meeting in Pontiac and at the Pageant of Progress in Chicago.

WOMEN IN HOMES AND SOCIETY

Countless women devote their whole lives to their homes, while others are in the business world, or find happiness only in society. Whether you are a home woman, a business woman, or a society woman, you know how hard it is to "drag along" day after day, suffering agonies, caused by some female derangement that has developed from overtaxing your strength. The natural restorative for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly half a century has been considered a standard remedy for woman's ills.—Adv.

The first two or three because other youngsters told you they were all exciting--after that because you knew they were--you had confidence in their author and publishers. You knew you'd find a thrill on every page, and you did.

It's the same way in building any business--yours or ours. By constantly rousing your interest in our merchandise, through price and value, we are going to get your interest, and soon your confidence in what we have to sell. The Hitting of Lee King Featured Both Games—In the First Contest He Hit Two Home Runs and a Double and in the Second He Secured a Single With the Bases Loaded

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—Philadelphia today divided a double-header with Pittsburgh, winning the first game 6 to 5 and losing the second in the eleventh, 8 to 6. A triple by Bigbee and a sacrifice by Robertson gave the Pirates the second game in the eleventh. The hitting of Lee King featured both contests. His two home runs and a double won the opening game for the Phillies, while his single in the seventh bases full, tied the score and forced the second contest into extra innings.

Magnifying the Finger Print

THE proved oil producing area in the United States is estimated as only 4500 square miles. When you contrast this with the area of the United States—3,026,789 square miles—the proved area is but a finger print on the map.

Yet from this 4500-square miles must come the raw material to drive all of our motor driven machines, and practically all of the oil to lubricate the machinery which makes possible the happiness and prosperity of the nation.

To magnify this finger print is the task in which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is engaged.

By reason of the Burton Process, which largely increases the amount of gasoline recoverable from a given quantity of crude oil, and dozens of other methods developed in its laboratories and refineries, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has multiplied the quantity of finished petroleum products available for the use of men wherever they may live.

The development of the Burton Process has done more to promote the manufacture of automotive machinery than any other single discovery since the usefulness of gasoline as a fuel was made known. Because of it there is a plentiful supply of crude oil available today, and gasoline is selling for a low price. Without it the price of this fuel would be beyond the reach of the average man.

The use of this process is not confined to the refiners of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) alone, but is being made available to others under conditions which are just and equitable to all.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has a just pride in the work it has done, and is doing, to so increase the quantity and quality of its products as to make possible the use of labor saving machinery throughout the world.

This is the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) doing a big work in conserving the natural resources of the nation, and in helping others to do likewise.

Mlle. Susanne Lenglen Defaulted Her Match

16.—The physical collapse of Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen of Paris, holder of the world's tennis championship, furnished a dramatic climax to the second round of the United States annual women's tennis championship tournament on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club today.

The French racket wizard who arrived in this country last Saturday heralded as the greatest exponent of the court game in the feminine domain after being decisively defeated by a score of six games to two in her opening match against Mrs. Mollie Bjursted Mallory, present American titleholder, collapsed in a chair alongside the referee's stand and defaulted her match after losing the first two points of the first game of the second set.

Mlle. Lenglen's sudden capitulation to a renewal of her attack of bronchitis and the powerful and aggressive play of Mrs. Mallory left a gallery of some 8,000 spectators stunned into silence.

For several years followers of tennis the world over have been enthralled by tales of the marvelous play of the French woman who, in her own country, is as great a popular idol as Georges Carpentier.

Today she fell from the pedestal in a far more dramatic and decisive manner perhaps, than did Carpentier on July 2. Notwithstanding the known lack of practice due to her arrival in this country as late as last Saturday, Suzanne was generally expected to give Mrs. Mallory a terrific battle with the odds in favor of victory due to her tournament record at Wimbledon early in the summer. A great round of handclapping greeted her appearance in company with Mrs. Mallory when the pair came to the turf a few minutes before 5 o'clock. Mrs. Mallory won the first two games at point scores of four to two in a most convincing fashion. Mlle. Lenglen appeared to open her play in a slof and hesitating fashion which was remarked upon by those who have seen her in action at home. In the third game she increased both her speed and stride, winning after deuce had been called twice, and it was then that those observers noticed that she was beginning to cough. The fourth game was quickly won by the American championship holder while the fifth went to Mlle. Lenglen after one deuce round. With the score three to two games in her favor, Mrs. Mallory quickly ran out the set, winning the last three games by point scores of 4-2, 5-3, 4-2, for a total of 32 points to 24 and 6 games to two.

The French woman opened the second set on her own service driving out after a short rally and then double-faulting.

At this point she appeared to hesitate on the back line before taking her service position and then walked slowly across the court to the referee's stand. She sank into a chair and after a moment's indecision, Mrs. Mallory also walked to the rapidly increasing group and a moment later was seen to shake Mlle. Lenglen's head perfunctorily and hurry across the turf to the club house.

Mlle. Lenglen with a towel held at her mouth and in a violent spasm of coughing which caused the tears to roll down her face, was assisted to the club house and later to her private apartments in a nearby hotel while the official announcement was made that she had defaulted her match with Mrs. Mallory and withdrawn from the singles tournament.

The physical collapse and withdrawal of the famous racket wielder under the conditions and circumstances left spectators in uncertain frame of mind concerning Mlle. Lenglen's ability at least on American courts. Judged on the basis of her showing against Mrs. Mallory she was not the court phenomenon which American followers of the game had been led to expect. A far more brilliant, skillful and interesting contest preceded the international play in which Mrs. B. E. Gale of Boston defeated her townswoman, Mrs. Leslie Bancroft 5-7, 9-7, 8-6. This match, in which all three sets went to deuce, was probably one of the best played in a woman's national tournament in recent years and had whetted the spectators' appetite for even great flights of tennis when Mrs. Mallory and Mlle. Lenglen succeeded the Bostonians.

It was said by tennis officials here tonight that it is still hoped that Suzanne will recover from her indisposition in time to take part in the doubles play even though she does not appear before Thursday.

Boston, Aug. 16.—Boston hit Alexander hard today driving him out of the box in the sixth and defeated Chicago, 8 to 6. In the first inning with two on bases, Cruise hit the ball into the right field bleachers on the fly. When he was with the St. Louis Nationals he made what is said to have been the only other home run ever driven on the fly into this stand.

JEANETTE RANKIN WINS SIXTH RACE

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Jeanette Rankin scored her sixth winning race out of her seven starts this season when she captured the $2,500 Bulls Head Bazaar stake feature of the opening day's card of the fifth Grand circuit meeting at the Belmont Driving Club's mile track at Narborth, Pa. Three of the four events were won by four year old fillies.

McDonald drove Jeanette Rankin to victory in three straight heats, after hot brushes in the stretch with Princess Elawah and Betty Taylor. In all three heats the winner finished handily.

Jane The Great driven by Walter Cox took the Matthews Stake for 2:10 trotters in straight heats the middle being in 2:06 1-4. In the Directors' stake for 2:17 trotters, for horses owned in Pennsylvania, Madame Dillon, owned by a B. Cox of Poalia, Pa., and driven by Bob Grady had won the first heat. George McDonald, son of Lon McDonald, drove his maiden race on the Grand Circuit in this race behind Binkie.

The Novelty race, a dash of one mile and 100 yards for 2:12 pacers was won by Baby Doll driven by W. R. Fleming. The horses got the word on a walk and paced the first 100 yards in ten seconds and then stepped the mile in 2:05 3-4.

THE U.S. USCOTREAD

Here is the U. S. Usco Tread, with a long-established standard of service among motorists who have an eye to value, as well as to price. While selling for less than the other tires in the U. S. Fabric line, the Usco has earned a reputation for quality and dependable economy which is not exceeded by any tire in its class.

From the makers of U.S. Royal Cords to the users of Fabric Tires

"Giving to the fabric tire user fresh, live tires. Being made now. Being shipped now."

In all of modern merchandising the biggest conundrum is the fabric tire situation.

Around 75% of all car owners use fabric tires.

Their instinct for quality is as strong and insistent as any one else's.

Why, then, are they offered such hodge-podge stocks of "discount tires," "odd lots," "seconds," "retreads," and other so-called bargains of uncertain origin?

Sooner or later the public always seeks out quality. As a matter of self-protection—if for no other reason. The out-and-out opinion in favor of U. S. Fabric Tires has spread more this year than it ever did.

People have gotten very close to the U. S. policy. Felt it. Benefited by it. And passed the word along.

It's a policy settled to one standard for all U. S. Tires. Whether fabrics or cords. Small sizes or large.

Giving to the fabric tire user fresh, live tires. Being made now. Being shipped now.

All the original U. S. vitality and service comes through when you buy a U. S. Fabric Tire.

"Usco," "Chain," "Nobby."

Three different treads. Built by the same brains, the same policy, the same quality ideals that have made U. S. Royal Cords the standard measure of tire worth.

In Earlier Days

In former times, when the town butcher or farmer himself dressed and cured the meat for the community, he could not always tell how it would turn out.

His methods were crude; partly traditional, partly guesswork. His tests were few and inconclusive.

Meat packing of today, as carried on by Swift & Company, has changed all that. It is scientific. Nothing is left to chance; nothing taken for granted.

The most painstaking care and attention are given to every step. Processes are worked out on a large scale with minute exactness. Methods are continually revised and improved. Cleanliness is insisted upon. Drastic, incessant inspections are the order of the day.

Swift products are uniform, graded according to quality.

Take bacon, for instance.

Swift & Company set out years ago to make a delicious, savory bacon which should be uniformly excellent.

The result is Swift's Premium Bacon, always the same, always famously good. Today this bacon, wrapped, sealed and branded, has circled the world.

Swift & Company's system of distribution carries it to places which the "town butcher" or the farmer could not reach.

Daily Market Report

WHEAT VALUES

TAKE TUMBLE

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Material declines in the value of wheat took place today, largely to stock market depression and to spectacular breaks in the price of corn and oats. Wheat eased nervous 2 to 3c net lower with Sept. 1.22 to 1.22½ and Dec. 1.23½ to 1.23½; corn lost 1½c to 1½c and oats 1½c to 1½c. Provisions the outcome was unchanged to 35c lower.

Dearth of buying orders in the wheat pit made the market unusually sensitive to the influence of the stock market and the declines which began soon after trading opened were speedily capitalized thru the bearish action of corn and oats, all deliveries of the feed grains touching the lowest prices of the season, with the September delivery of oats commanding less than at any time since 1912.

Increased hedging pressure and liquidation on the part of holders was the rule in corn, whereas hogs in sight left the oats market little support.

Offerings of corn to arrive increased simultaneously with a falling off in demand from the seaboard.

Oats closed at the bottom point of the session. Active spreading between September and December was underway at the widest difference so far.

Provisions sagged with grain and hogs notwithstanding that the stock of lard here showed 11,000,000 pounds decrease in the last two weeks.

PROFIT TAKING

CAUSES DECLINE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Liquidation and professional selling caused further depreciation of quoted values in the stock market today. Numerous speculative sustained additional declines of one to four points.

New low records for a year or more were registered by oil, steel, equipments, chemicals and various unclassified shares. Food, textile, paper and mail order issues were also weak. Ralls were apathetic, but mainly lower and shippings eased under pressure.

Lowest prices were made in the afternoon when offerings of Mexican Petroleum, United Fruit and General Electric were most effective. Before the close, however, profit-taking caused moderate rallies.

Sales amounted to 465,000 shares.

Withdrawal of $55,000,000 of federal deposits from local banks precluded any relaxation of money rates. Scandinavian remittances were higher by 10 to 35 points. Sterling bills reacted 1½ cents, francs fell eight points and guilders lost 15 points.

Markets were weakest at 1.5 but rallied slightly later.

The bond market was dull but firmness prevailed in rails. Liberties were irregular slight reactions ruling at the end.

Total sales (par value) $8,250,000.

217 South Main StPLAN ERECTION OF NEW BUILDING AT U. OF I.Proposed $500,000 Structure Will Be First Unit of New Group of Agriculture Buildings — New Departments Created.URBANA, Ill. — Preliminary plans for the erection of the first unit of the new group of agriculture buildings of the University of Illinois have been authorized by the board of trustees. The new $500,000 structure will be used for laboratory or class room purposes and will be a big step toward solving the needs of the college of agriculture.Dr. David Kinley, president, today that under the new provision made by the state legislature
"there is every prospect that the university will open in September under conditions of greatly improved efficiency. The faculty of the university announce they are able to provide for all classes in prospect, to restore their classes to normal size and to improve the teaching. Lateness of the legislation for the university made it more difficult to secure all of the new teachers wanted, yet prompt action has resulted in the securing of about 140 to date.Two new departments were created by the trustees. The astronomy department, formerly a division of the mathematics department, will continue under the direction of Prof. Joel Stebbins.
Prof. F. W. Tanner heads the new bacteriology department which has been divorced from the department of botany.Prof. J. C. Blair was persuaded by the president to withdraw his resignation and will remain in charge of the department of horticulture. Prof. Edward C.
Schmidt who resigned as head of the railway engineering department in 1917 to become a major of ordnance during the war, has been recalled from Milwaukee where he is engaged as a mechanical engineer, to take his former position here.Prof. H. R. Rusk, in the absence of Prof. H. W. Mumford, will be acting head of the animal husbandry department to replace Prof. W. C. Coffey, resigned. Dr.
C. F. Hotes, long a member of the botany department and widely known as a plant physiologist, will be consulting plant physiologist for the agronomy department.The incidental fee has been raised 50 per cent for non-residents of Illinois who will now pay $37.50 per semester. Residents of Illinois not holding scholarships will continue to pay $25 a semester as before.HAY DEALERS WILL CONVENE IN CHICAGOChicago. —Transportation and disposition of the present hay crop will be the principal subject of discussion at the 28th annual convention of the National Hay Association to be held in Chicago August 23 and 24. The association is composed of about 1,800 shippers, receivers, commission men and brokers in hay and straw in the United States and Canada.At the present time, the association is especially interested in a reduction in freight rates, according to J. Vining Taylor, secretary of the association. In many instances, he said, the freight on a ton of hay has equaled or amounted to more than the hay was worth on the market.An attempt will be made by the association to show the grain and hay interests that the horse is not a back number but is essential, and to demonstrate the economy of using a horse as compared with that of using mechanically drawn implements.MANY ENTRIES IN STATE FAIR BABY SHOWSpringfield. —Entries in the baby show at the state fair which opens here Aug. 19 have come in so rapidly that additional cotton and cribs have been purchased to accommodate all who will vie for the state honors.Nearly 1,000 youngsters are expected. Entries last week reached over 750. Refrigerators have been installed, ice cream have been engaged and all arrangements made with milkmen to keep sufficient fresh milk on hand for the would-be champions.IS VISITING SISTER

HAS BEEN REMOVEDBody of Capt. Jonathan Walker Removed from Obscure Grave and Placed in Prominent Spot in Muskegon Cemetery.Muskegon, Mich. — The body of Captain Jonathan Walker, the abolitionist about whom Whittier wrote "The Branded Hand," has been removed from an obscure grave in Evergreen cemetery here to a plot of prominence near the cemetery entrance. His monument erected nearly half a century ago also has been transferred there.The monument, a statue of Captain Walker, shows the "S. S." signifying "slave stealer," which was branded on his hand for anti-slavery activities in Florida. It was the donation of a former naval chaplain, Photius Fisk, a former naval chaplain, and its unveiling in 1878 drew a distinguished assemblage from the north.Captain Walker was a native of Northampton, Mass., and for many years, followed the sea for a livelihood.In 1835, in company with Benjamin Lundy, he went to Mexico to assist in the colonization of negroes who had escaped from American slavery. Later he purchased a ship, and while engaged in trading coastwise in this country, helped slaves get away.While making a trip from Florida to the Bahamas in 1844, he was captured and returned to Florida. He was found guilty of slave stealing, sentenced to the pillory and branded on his right hand. Subsequently he was punished with a year in solitary confinement.After regaining his liberty, Captain Walker went through the north, lecturing against slavery.He came to Muskegon after the civil war and purchased a small farm where he made his home until his death in 1878.Why pay $40.00 rent when I can sell you a house so cheap. Interest and taxes will only cost $26.00 per month.—J. O. REXROAT.SEVENTY-FIVE DOLLARS
